<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Bank may change the amount of commission based on the client's agreement. 2. According to the world practice in transferring non-cash funds in USD, US correspondent banks automatically change the type of rate from OUR to BEN and SHA, which leads to being charged commissions by any intermediary foreign bank, as a result of which the recipients may not get the total volume of transfers regardless of the instructions to making transfers written in the application. Please, take this into consideration while making transfers in USD.
